

Northern Virginia Resource Center for Deaf & Hard of Hearing Persons
Improving Communication, Changing Lives

Fostering Better Communication Between the Deaf & Hard of Hearing Community & the Police Officer Meg Hawkins will present a program focusing on communication between the police and the deaf and hard of hearing community. She will include:

- What training do police officers receive regarding the deaf and hard of hearing community?
- What to do if you are pulled over, especially at night
- What to expect when the police arrive after you have been involved in a traffic accident

We will also allow time for Q&A and for the audience to:

- Share your police experience
- Discuss how the police can best communicate with you

ZOOM on Thursday evening,
November 16 at 7 pm

ASL interpreting and captioning will be provided*

Register Here
or visit NVRC.org

Officer Meg Hawkins is a 20-year veteran in law enforcement with Fairfax County. She holds the title of a Certified Crime Prevention Specialist, accredited by the Virginia Dept. of Criminal Justice Services, and she is also a Certified Law Enforcement Crime Prevention through Environmental Design Practitioner. However, her true calling lies in community outreach and engagement, a passion she fervently pursues as the Community Outreach Officer for the Sully District Station.