

SENIORS' CHAT

Hello, Happy Hands Members and Friends,

Our next Happy Hands meeting on January 4, 2023 will be in person at the new location (see page 2).

Melanie Williams gave a presentation on "Lipizzaner Horses" at the December 7 meeting. I found it interesting the roles that Maximilian II, Colonel Alois Podhajsky, and General George Patton had with those horses. I was impressed by the maneuvers and jumps that the horse did. See page 3 for recap.

It is hard to believe that 2023 is almost here. Hope the new year will be prosperous and happy. Hope to see you on January 11 at Clyde's Willow Creek Farm in Broadlands to welcome the new year (see page 9). As usual, Stay Happy Safely with Our Awesome Hands!

I went to Sport Luncheon during Baltimore DSA — Curtis Pride was the speaker. It was announced that autographed baseballs would be sold downstairs! We learned that we were from the same town — he was from East High while I was from Wilson High (2 of 6 city high schools)! Small world! Thanks to my OSU shirt that got his ATTENTION!

DeSanto Centre for the Deaf

DeSanto Centre for the Deaf is based in Livingstone, Zambia. It was established because there is not enough educational resources for the over 250 Deaf adults and children. DeSanto provides education tailored to Deaf students, including two healthy meals a day, and transportation to and from school for each student. Lisa Zahra is the Founder/Director of DEAAF and The DeSanto Centre for the Deaf (one and the same). She has been volunteering for 20+ years. Her teachers are dedicated and committed in continuing to teach their Deaf students.

Funds needed:

DeSanto is in dire straits as its funding has come to a screeching halt. DeSanto wants to continue its work and provide for the community. For donations, see: <https://kidsfk.org/donations/desanto/>. The parents are pleading with DeSanto to remain open, because DeSanto has helped the Deaf children excel in many ways. The teachers have not been paid for almost two months now. It could be more than that if DeSanto does not get additional funds.
