About NVRC

To empower deaf and hard of hearing individuals and their families through education, advocacy and community involvement.

Serving a Diverse Community of Deaf and Hard of Hearing Since 1988

NVRC serves a diverse range of people, including the deaf, deaf-blind, late-deafened, hard of hearing, parents with deaf and hard of hearing children, children of deaf and hard of hearing parents, educators, sign language teachers and students, hearing aid users, people with cochlear implants, people with tinnitus, and people with auditory processing disorders.

Statement on Inclusion

To accomplish our mission, NVRC is responsive to the needs of everyone in the community who may receive services, regardless of their race, ethnic origin or disability. We create and implement programs using our awareness of cultural differences and treat all with respect. Furthermore, we create an organizational culture that values people of all racial/ethnic and disability backgrounds, based on our values of respect, integrity, and honesty. Our commitment to inclusiveness is evident in our organizational policies and procedures, as part of our strategic plan, and within our organizational goals.
